FROM THE DIRECTORS CHAIR

As Stage Door Players enters into its milestone 40th Anniversary Season, and I celebrate my 10th Season as your Artistic Director, I am in awe and so proud of what has taken place. I am also amazed how quickly time flies when you are having the time of your life. Let's look back.....

Founded in 1974 as a Community Improvement Project of the Dunwoody Woman's Club, the community theatre performed in various locations until 1988, when a permanent home was realized here in the North DeKalb Cultural Center. Relying on the time, talents, and energy of volunteers, the initial effort was to involve the total community in its development.

And now, fast forward to 2013. Dunwoody is a major axis of North Atlanta. It is a hub of industry, business, shopping, great restaurants, and is a thriving cultural and artistic center, and we have grown and evolved along with our community. Today, Stage Door Players is a fully professional theatre, producing a full season of popular, compelling and entertaining works, with a continuing history of strong community connection, welcoming audiences from all over the Atlanta Metro area.

This season we honor the past and look to the future with a season lineup that includes fresh new works along with classic favorites. We salute our men and women in uniform and celebrate the music of the 1940's with "The Andrews Brothers." Spend the Holiday Season solving a farcical murder mystery in "The Games Afoot, or Holmes for the Holidays." Rekindle and explore family relationships in "On Golden Pond" and "Miracle on South Division Street." Raise your voice and rock out with songs of praise in "Godspell 2012." And check in with familiar old friends in "The Odd Couple."

So as we begin this milestone year, we invite you to be a part of our history, and our future. Your purchase of season tickets allows us to continue the legacy that was started so many years ago. Your financial contributions help us to entertain, delight and celebrate the value and the importance of the Arts in our community. Without the support of our season ticket holders, loyal audiences, sponsors, artists, partners, and guardian angels, we wouldn't be here after all this time.

Happy Ruby Anniversary, Stage Door Players! Forty looks good on you.

See you at the Stage Door!

THE ODD COUPLE (Comedy)

This Tony Award winning classic comedy opens as a group of the guys assembled for cards in the apartment of divorced Oscar Madison. And if the mess is any indication, it's no wonder that his wife left him. Late to arrive is Felix Unger who has just been separated from his wife. Fastidious, depressed and none too tense, Felix seems suicidal, but as the action unfolds Oscar becomes the one with murder on his mind when the clean-freak and the slob ultimately decide to room together with hilarious results.
