Stage Door Players

2014-2015 SEASON BROCHURE

FROM THE DIRECTORS CHAIR

Dear Theater Lovers,

As Stage Door Players reached the end of a remarkable 40th Anniversary Season, we began to reflect on what an amazing journey it has been. What started as a small, nomadic community theatre in a quiet corner of the city, this organization has flourished right alongside our Dunwoody community into an award-winning, fully professional theatre, presenting some of the most extraordinary talent that the area has to offer. It is the support of our patrons, our friends, and our community that has nourished Stage Door Players and helped us grow into one of Metro Atlanta's cultural institutions.

And we hope that you will help us keep on growing. We have big plans in mind for our 41st season.

An evolution slowly began a decade ago when I became your Artistic Director here at the theater, and over the years we began to form a resident company of professional artists and designers. This artistic core has strengthened Stage Door's production values and garnered a new level of recognition. The theatre is attracting new talent—and new audiences—more than ever before. And now, going into our 41st season, it is this artistic core we plan to expand. With a resident team made up of some of the theater community's brightest and dedicated talent, Stage Door Players will continue to be well on its way to becoming one of the hottest tickets in town.

With the exciting programming we have in store this season; two Regional Premiere plays, a Pulitzer Prize winning drama, two classic comedies and one of the most lavish musicals we have ever produced, it is our mission to once again to prove that your entertainment dollars are well spent, and your investment in Stage Door Players is a strong one.

Your purchase of Season Tickets along with your tax deductible donations help us realize our goals, and you will be helping the company you have come to know and love rise to the next level.

You have been the secret to Stage Door Players' success for forty years. We look forward sharing that success with you in the year to come and many more.

See you at the Stage Door!

I DO, I DO, I DO

By Robin Hawdon
(Comedy) Regional Premiere

Diana is beautiful, intelligent, and sweet natured. The three men in her life are Jamie, the much envied man to whom she is officially engaged; Tom, the attractive boyfriend of Jamie's sister; and Geoff, the oldest friend who is to be best man. Diana's insurmountable problem is that, during the course of the longest weekend of her life, she finds herself having promised marriage to all three! Will she make up her mind in time for the big society wedding arranged in a month's time?

"Produces an amorous and highly amusing ronde of love, or as the exasperated mother calls it, 'a boogie-woogie of emotions!'" - Express Bonn

September 19 through October 12, 2014

PRIVATE LIVES

By Noel Coward
(Comedy)

A comedy of manners and marriage, ex-lovers Amanda Prynne and Elyot Chase find themselves both honeymooning with their new spouses at the same hotel in France, old resentments quickly fan the fires of an old flame. Always lively, Coward's script is filled to the brim with clever barbs and witty retorts as Amanda and Elyot bounce back and forth between a state of passionate infatuation and ferocious hostility.

"Gorgeous, dazzling, fantastically funny." - The New York Times

January 16 through February 8, 2015

SYLVIA

By A.R. Gurney
(Comedy)

A modern romantic comedy about a marriage and a dog. Greg brings home a dog he found in the park, bearing only the name "Sylvia" on her name tag. A street-smart mixture of Lab and Poodle, Sylvia becomes a major bone of contention between husband and wife. The marriage is put in serious jeopardy until, after a series of hilarious and touching complications, Greg and Kate learn to compromise, and Sylvia becomes a valued part of their lives.

"- one of the most involving, beautiful, funny, touching and profound plays I have ever seen..." - NY Daily News

May 15 through June 7, 2015

Rabbit Hole

By David Lindsay-Abaire
(Drama)

Becca and Howie Corbett have everything a family could want, until a life-shattering accident turns their world upside down and leaves the couple drifting perilously apart. This winner of the 2007 Pulitzer Prize for Drama charts their bittersweet search for comfort in the darkest of places and for a path that will lead them back into the light of day.

"—an intensely emotional examination of grief, laced with wit, insightfulness, compassion and searing honesty." —Variety

November 14 through December 7, 2014

Rounding Third

By Richard Dresser
(Comedy/Drama) Regional Premiere

ROUNDING THIRD is the tumultuous journey of two Little League coaches through an entire season, from their first tentative meeting to the climactic championship game. Don is the tough, blue-collar, win-at-all-costs veteran coach whose son is the star pitcher. Michael is a newcomer both to the town and to baseball who agrees to be Don's assistant because he wants a special activity with his son. Despite their differences, the two men battle over how to lead the team.

"Rounding Third" is a delightful romp through Little League" - The Daily Mirror

THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD

Music and Lyrics by Rupert Holmes
(Musical)

This wildly warm-hearted theatrical experience kicks off when the Music Hall Royale "puts on" its flamboyant rendition of an unfinished Dickens mystery. Our title character disappears mysteriously one stormy Christmas Eve - but has Edwin been murdered? The giddiness of this play-within-a-play allows the audience to vote on the solution as prelude to the most unusual and hilarious finale!

"Boisterous and delectable. A shimmering musical pleasure to savor." — The New York Times
